

COMMENCEMENT AT ELON COLLEGE.

Hon. T. B. Womack Delivers the Address and Dr. C. J. Jones Preaches the Sermon. (Special to STATE CHRONICLE.)

ELON COLLEGE, N. C., June 4. —The commencement exercises of Elon College began June 2d, 1881. At 11:30 a. m., the college chapel was filled to overflowing with people from different parts of North Carolina and Virginia, assembled to hear the Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. C. J. Jones, D. D., of Norfolk, Va. Dr. Jones was listened to with marked attention. His sermon was characterized by deep thought and polished language.

At 8 p. m. the speeches and essays by the representatives of the three literary societies were rendered very creditably. These were interspersed with music and recitations by the young ladies under the management of Miss Lena B. Beale, who has charge of the music department. All acted their parts well and made the occasion enjoyable to the large and appreciative audience.

At 10 a. m., on Wednesday, June 3d, the graduating class headed by the trustees and faculty of the college filed into the chapel, during the sweet strains of music furnished by the Glencoe Cornet Band, and took their seats upon the rostrum. The graduating speeches were listened to with much attention and were followed by loud applause. The following are the names of the young gentlemen who took their degrees: N. G. Newman, Everetts, Va.; subject, "Higher Female Education;" C. C. Peel, Suffolk, Va.; subject, "The Millionaire and his Limits;" Herbert Scholz, Raleigh, N. C., subject, "One Great Need of the Farming Classes."

After the orations, the diplomas were presented by Rev. J. H. Newman, Secretary of the Faculty, and the Bibles by Rev. W. W. Staley. The remarks of Rev. Mr. Staley were impressive and well chosen. Then came the valedictory by W. G. Newman, who aroused pleasant and joyful emotions when referring to the course through which the class had striven, and sad feelings when speaking of the arrival of the time when the members of the class must part.

At 3 p. m., the annual address was delivered by Judge T. B. Womack, of Pittsboro, N. C. Judge Womack spoke of the great changes which had been wrought by the application of steam and electricity within the past few decades, and of the great possibilities which the next few years had in store. His address was a fine production characterized by both the theoretical and the practical, and gave to the students and visitors a fine example of oratory.

At 8 p. m., the exercises were closed with a social entertainment given in the chapel by the students. White dresses and fans fluttered around most promiscuously, and the merry laugh and musical voice echoed through the halls, far into the night. Thus terminated a successful year's work at Elon College.

FIRE IN GREENSBORO.

It Burns an Oil Car and Damages the R. & D. Freight Depot.

Just after the storm on night before last at Greensboro, fire started by some cause or other in a box-car filled with oil, standing on a warehouse track at the R. & D. Freight Depot. The car was entirely destroyed with its contents and the water and oil damaged the depot.

The depot had a narrow escape as the fire had taken hold of it and only by hard efforts was it saved. The loss was about $1,000.

TESTIMONIALS:

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 19, 1890. MESSRS. LEE, JOHNSON & CO.:

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in adding my testimony to the worth of your Anticephalalgine as a specific for headache in all forms. For many years I have been a great sufferer with this ailment, and take pleasure in stating that in no instance, when directions were followed, has it failed to give immediate relief.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 24, 1891.

MESSRS. LEE, JOHNSON & CO.:

Gentlemen:—Some days ago I was suffering from a headache, so intense as to force me from my business, but upon obtaining a dose of your "Anticephalalgine" was so much relieved as to be able to remain at my post of duty.

It is a fine remedy, and I trust that you may make its merits known to sufferers and the public. Yours truly,

J. M. BARBEE,

Clerk at Postoffice.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS.

SACK AND CUT-AWAY FROCK SUITS.

Nothing has ever won for us such a mint of good repute as our Spring line of Fifteen Dollar Suits. They have set the whole community talking. You look principally at the style. We can praise them for quality as well. Both are present in greater quantities than the same money will buy anywhere else. You are talking now with clothiers who have the making of them. If it were a second handed assurance of merit it would not mean so much. Handsome Garments! Take those Cheviots, Serges, Worsteds, Cassimeres, both in Sack and Frock—not a bad pattern among the lot—most of the trade have seen them and more good dressers have bought our $5 Suits than any others sold about town, and, in return, we begin with June 1st to add to our celebrated $15 line. Every suit in our house that sold to now at $16.50 and $18 for Fifteen Dollars.

A Hint to the Wise is Sufficient.

When we tell you that we've added every suit in our house that sold at $16.50 and $18 to our $15 line, is enough to convince you of better values than most of you expect, but our aim at all times to please the trade and show our appreciation for the liberal patronage so far this season, and the handsome increase in business proves how easy it is to do this, and how much better you fare in trading at our store.

The People's House!

The one place where you always find Correct Styles, Polite Treatment and Best values.

WHY PEOPLE SHOULD PATRONIZE

J. Hal. Bobbitt's Soda Fountain.

BECAUSE:

He pays attention to it.
He advertises.
He uses the best Fruit Juices.
He uses the best Sugar.
He uses the best Carbonated Water.
He employs competent and agreeable service.

IS A NUTSHELL.

It is because there is a niceness that is apparent in all the appointments. The fountain is packed with ice and is kept clean. The counter is kept clean; the glasses are kept clean.

There is, each Day, a Card-List of Flavors.

People want things NICE, especially in the matter of luxuries. Soda is a luxury; therefore
